Hoffman & Rathbone Pinot Noir NV2 (red),

Sussex - £19.50

- A soft and silky cool climate Pinot Noir. Cranberry and raspberry aromas on the nose with hints of spices, herbaceous and floral notes. Lovely plush dark cherry and red forest fruit flavours on the palate. It is heavenly light wine with fantastic structure and complexity.

Hoffman & Rathbone Barrel Fermented Bacchus, 2019 (white),

Sussex - £19.50

- Clear and bright, characterful nose with aromas of elderflower, pear and white peach. On the palate lime-citrus, greengage and hints of tropical fruit. Crisp fresh acidity balanced with a generous mouth feel and minerality.

Giffords Hall Bacchus, 2019 (white),

Sussex - £17.90

- The 2019 single estate Bacchus has had plenty of time on its lees to give it the full fresh aromas and punchy green fruit, hedgerow and elderflower flavours of the best Bacchus wines, with a hint of lychee. This full, fruity wine is, surprisingly, technically very dry and pairs really well with fish, cheese and mildly spicy dishes. As an aperitif, it is a sure winner.
