

MIDDLETON HALL

Life THE VOICE OF THE VILLAGE

COMMUNITY NEWS NOVEMBER 2021

BONFIRE NIGHT

We were delighted to host our Bonfire Night event again this year, complete with a fantastic firework display. Residents and Co-owners attended along with families and Middleton Court won the Middleton Hall Guy Competition which attracted entries from across the village. Independent residents enjoyed a special Bonfire Night meal in The Orangery.

POPULAR POTTERY SESSIONS

The weekly pottery sessions in the Art Studio are enjoyed by many independent residents keen to embrace the chance to learn new skills.

NOVEMBER BBQ

Residents wrapped up for an unseasonal barbecue at our community allotments. There were plenty of pizzas, sausages and burgers for residents from The Waterside and Middleton Woods who braved the chilly winds.

MAKING A SPLASH AT THE SPA

Independent residents have made the most of the return of Aqua Fit classes in the Middleton Spa pool.

ESTATES UPDATES

Storm Arwen left its mark in the woodland on the Middleton Hall estate. The Estates team have been busy clearing fallen trees and branches as well as keeping paths and roads gritted across the village during the recent cold snaps.

ALAN (FROM OUR ESTATES TEAM'S) SUSTAINABILITY QUOTE

“Walk as if you are kissing the earth with your feet.”

Thich Nhat Hanh, global spiritual leader, poet, and peace activist

MAINTENANCE UPDATES

The Maintenance team have been continuing the room renovations around Middleton Hall. They have installed new plant pots outside the Middleton Woods entrance and undertaken fire alarm tests inside the properties.
