RETIREMENT VILLAGE

AN EMPLOYEE OWNED COMPANY

BANK HOUSEKEEPER

We're recruiting a Bank Housekeeper to support the wider housekeeping team, delivering an invaluable service to all of our amazing residents (both residential and independent) across Middleton Hall.

Our Bank Housekeepers:

- Support the wider housekeeping team with all resident and public area cleans
- Use appropriate cleaning material, supplies and equipment to ensure the highest standard of cleanliness is provided and maintained at all times
- Liaise with Carers and Service Managers regarding resident requirements - associated with laundry, room preparation and general housekeeping
- Work independently as well as within a small but busy and dedicated team
- Liaise with care services to arrange collection and delivery of resident clothing/linen

The Opportunity:

- £9.70 per hour
- Flexible shifts to suit your needs whilst working around other commitments
- Bank Contract

Join us and we will:

- Support you through a comprehensive (but fun & friendly) induction programme
- Discuss and support you through many training & development opportunities
- Support Co-owner wellbeing - promoting use of our extensive facilities: spa, gym, pool, woodland walks, art studio, library, plus many more!
- Offer discounted food & drink from our on-site village shop and Orangery café
- Ensure you always have someone to talk to, either on-site or via our 24/7 EAP service

A little more info...

We're proud to recruit on values so whether you have or haven't worked in housekeeping, or the Health & Social care industry previously don't let this worry you! Our people matter - we don't just look at qualifications.

"The best thing about working at Middleton Hall is meeting the residents and having a positive impact on their lives."
