RETIREMENT VILLAGE

AN EMPLOYEE OWNED COMPANY

FOOD & BEVERAGE ASSISTANT

We're recruiting a F&B Assistant to join our friendly and professional hospitality team - responsible for providing a first class 5-star service across our Orangery café, Farm shop and Restaurant, whilst also supporting our catering and care services with all events, meetings and host duties.

About our hospitality service:

The Orangery café provides the perfect place for a coffee and catch-up with friends and family

Our restaurant is the perfect place to dine in style

The stables village shop is stocked with kitchen cupboard staples, fruit and vegetables and a selection of meat and fish from local suppliers, as well as a variety of luxury items sourced from independent producers.

We're proud to support all areas of Middleton Hall and provide a mouth-watering menu of freshly prepared home-made food

Our teams can also provide catering for special events and celebrations

Our Food & Beverage Assistants:

Create a warm and welcoming environment for all residents, family, friends, visitors and Co-owners

Provide exemplary customer service, ensuring all hospitality areas are well presented throughout Middleton Hall

Open and closing of all hospitality areas - clearing down and preparing for the next shift

Take payment for purchases in the Orangery/shop/bar - operating the till and PDQ machine

Prepare hot & cold drinks - including use and cleaning of a Barista Coffee Machine

Liaise regularly with the kitchen team to ensure the menu is up to date in order to recommend daily specials

Ensure any special requests and dietary requirements are sensitively handled and communicated to the Kitchen team clearly

Support all care services with hosting duties as and when required, providing a food service and delivery of room service meals and grocery orders

Support all events at Middleton Hall
